

NYC Office of Collective Bargaining Resume of Neutral

Name: Richard Adelman

Arbitrator Since: 1972

Arbitration/Mediation Experience

Full-time arbitrator since 1991, with extensive and varied experience in both the public and private sectors. On rosters of the AAA, FMCS, the NYSERS, the NJS Board of Mediation, among others.

Panels/Permanent Arbitrator

Contract Arbitrator - Local 100, TWU and NYCTA; Mailers Union and NY Post. Rotating panels for DC 37 and NYC Department of Education; Local 282; IBT and Construction Industry; Local 807, IBT and Trucking Industry; Local 53, OPEIU and Public Service Gas and Electric Co.; ILA and NY Shipping Association; among others.

Issues/Industries

Issues - arbitrability, work assignments, demotions and promotions, discipline and discharge, job posting and bidding, layoffs, bumping and recalls, jurisdictional disputes, past practice, seniority, strikes and lockouts, subcontracting, wages and benefits, discrimination, sexual harassment, safety, etc. Industries - transportation, construction, brewery, newspapers, education, and local government retail stores, etc.

Work History

Attorney, Battle Fowler 1968-1972
Enforcement Attorney, NLRB 1966-1968
Teaching Fellow, Stanford University School of Law, 1965-1966
Law Clerk, US District Judge Gus J. Solomon 1964-1965

Education

B.S. Syracuse University 1961
J.D. NYU School of Law 1964
L.L.M. NYU School of Law 1972

Professional Affiliations

National Academy of Arbitrators (since 1993); American Bar Association; NYS Bar Association; Labor and Employment Relations Association, NYC, LI & NJ Chapters

Relevant Work\Training\Publications

Editor, NYU Conference on Labor 1977-1986
Contributor, Kheel on Labor Law 1972-1980
First Chair, Arbitrator Mentoring Program, NYSBA, Labor and Employment Section

Date March 17, 2007