

NYC Office of Collective Bargaining Resume of Neutral

Name: Sid Braufman

Arbitrator Since: 1986

Arbitration/Mediation Experience

Has issued better than 600 labor awards. Has also mediated in a dozen labor employment-law cases in the past 4 years.

Panels/Permanent Arbitrator

AAA, FMCS, N.Y.S. Employment Relations Board., N.J.S. Mediation Board., N.J. PERC, Railway Mediation Board. Member of Special Arbitration Panel for N.Y.C. Ready Mix Concrete Producers and Teamster Local 282.

Issues/Industries

ISSUES: Discipline/Discharge, Sexual Harassment, Subcontracting, Holiday & Vacation Pay, Overtime Distribution, Discrimination, Poor Work Performance, Temporary Assignments, Work Out of Title, Attendance Control, Dress Codes. INDUSTRIES: The Health & Hospitals Corp., Federal Correctional Institutions, N.Y.C. Correctional Facilities, Park Department, NYPD, Housing Dept., Secondary Schools, Welfare Dept. UNIONS: AFSCME, D.C.37, Teamsters, UFCU, PBA, AFGE, IBEW, IAM, SEIU, etc.

Work History

1986 - Present, Adjunct Professor, Baruch College, CUNY Also taught at NYU, NY Institute of Technology & Hofstra. Previously worked in private industry as a Human Resource Specialist of Sperry Corp. after working for AAA as Assistant Director, International Arbitration

Education

J.D., DePaul University College of Law
Bachelor of Foreign Trade, American Graduate School For International Studies

Professional Affiliations

Licensed to practice law in New York, Indiana & Illinois.
Member: N.Y.S. Bar Association & IRRA

Relevant Work\Training\Publications

Teaches Labor Relations and Human Resource Management at Baruch College, CUNY. Previously worked for Sperry Corp. in Human-Resource Management. Has also lectured and given seminars in EEO., Sexual Harassment, Arbitration and Collective Bargaining. Was an executive with American Arbitration Assoc. for 7 years. Published "Coping with Arbitration: Private Industry v. Academia in the March 1993 edition of the AAA Journal.

Date March 1, 2007