

NYC Office of Collective Bargaining Resume of Neutral

Name: David Gregory

Arbitrator Since: 1983

Arbitration/Mediation Experience

National Academy of Arbitrators, member. I have extensive experience in all discipline and discharge matters and in the entire range of contract interpretation and statutory legal and procedural issues (e.g., arbitrability, subcontracting, reductions in force, management rights, out-of-title, discrimination, wage rates, job assignments, promotions, vacations, scheduling, seniority, benefits). I frequently serve as a mediator in labor and employment matters.

Panels/Permanent Arbitrator

Civil Service Employees Association and Nassau County; CSEA and Nassau University Medical Center and Holly Paterson Extended Care Facility; Jamaica Hospital and 1199; ConocoPhillips and Teamsters Local 877; Columbia University and Transport Workers Local 241; Plumbing Suppliers and Teamsters Local 282; University of Minnesota and Faculty, Professional, and Administrative Staff; New York State Nurses Association and St. Luke's Roosevelt Hospital (expedited panel)

Issues/Industries

I have extensive experience with the entire range of contractual interpretation issues, and the entire range of discipline and discharge issues. Representative industries: hospitals and health care; retail; education (primary, secondary, and college and graduate levels); financial sector; law enforcement and public safety (fire, EMS); transportation; communications; auto; refining; manufacturing

Work History

Arbitrator 1983--present. Professor of labor, employment, and constitutional law, St. John's University School of Law, 1982--present. Attorney, labor and employment law, Detroit (1980-1982). Equal Employment Opportunity Counselor, U.S. Postal Service, Royal Oak, Michigan (1977-1980). United Autoworkers Union (UAW) member and General Motors Cadillac factory assembly line worker (summers, 1971-1973)

Education

Yale University Law School--J.S.D. (Doctor of the Science of Jurisprudence) (1987) and LL.M. (Master of Laws) (1982). University of Detroit School of Law--J.D. magna cum laude (1980). Wayne State University, Detroit, M.B.A. in labor relations (1977). The Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C. , B.A. with honors, honors program in philosophy (1973)

Professional Affiliations

National Academy of Arbitrators, member. Chair, Labor Law (1996) and Employment Discrimination (2000) Sections, Association of American Law Schools. American Law Institute, member. NY State Bar Labor Law Section Executive Committee, Law School Liaison Committee Chair (1994-2001).

Relevant Work\Training\Publications

Contributing Author to the leading labor arbitration treatises, How Arbitration Works and Discipline and Discharge in Arbitration. Author of more than 200 professional and academic labor law articles. Many published labor arbitration decisions in Labor Arbitration Reports, Bureau of National Affairs: e.g., 123 LA 560 (2007); 123 LA 193 (2007); 123 LA 1006 (2007); 122 LA 1065 (2006); 122 LA 882 (2006); 121 LA 1010 (2005)

Date May 10, 2007