

Martin F. Scheinman, Esq.
ARBITRATOR

OCCUPATION

Full time ad hoc and contract arbitrator in private and public sector disputes since 1978. Arbitrated over 10,000 disputes throughout the United States. Issues included: discipline and discharge, seniority, job classifications, incentive rates, promotions, overtime, subcontracting, welfare and pension funds, insurance and disability plans, fringe benefits, and jurisdictional disputes.

Interest Arbitrator in over two hundred (200) disputes.

Arbitrated and mediated over 150 disputes involving individual employment contracts, commercial transactions and ERISA claims, including serving as Independent Trustee. These included basic contract and employment discharge matters, claims for disputed compensation and severance, and issues involving restrictive covenants and breaches of fiduciary duties, withdrawal liability, Trustee Deadlocks, eligibility disputes, resolution of pending pension and welfare litigation, issues involving the right of Funds to litigate against service providers as well as disputes involving the seating of Trustees.

Arbitrated and mediated over 125 private claims and class actions of alleged discrimination asserting racial, ethnic, sexual preference or physical and mental disability. These included large complex claims of millions of dollars involving hundreds of plaintiffs. Also, arbitrated over 100 disputes under collective bargaining agreements wherein unions claimed discipline imposed was a pretext for discriminatory action by employer. Permanent arbitrator for alleged discrimination by convention centers and by unions.

Arbitrated and mediated over 50 claims involving disputes between accounting partners, law partners and other professionals. These included issues of valuations. Arbitrated and mediated over 25 commercial disputes.

Mediated over 2,000 Labor-Management private and public sector disputes.
